New Perspectives in Contemporary Art

Mondays-Saturdays. Continues through July 10 2009

646-649-9002

ART

Created in collaboration with students from Columbia University's Curatorial Studies program and featuring 2009 Visual Arts graduates, this exhibition of new and recent works prizes artists offering either new takes on old questions or completely new approaches and paradigms. The five artists involved work with photography, video, installation, sculpture and a mobile.
